Insurance Information

Insurance information

All rental cars must have Collision Damage Waiver (CDW) and Theft Protection (TP). Each policy will be either:

- included or
- purchasable from the rental company, or
- provided by another company (e.g. your credit card company).

Collision Damage Waiver (CDW)

This rental includes Collision Damage Waiver with zero excess. This cover is only valid if you stick to the terms of the rental agreement. It only covers the car's bodywork. It doesn't cover charges (e.g. for towing or off-road time), or anything in the car (e.g. child seats, GPS devices or personal belongings), or damage caused by the negligence of anyone driving the car.

Theft Cover

This rental includes Theft Protection with zero excess: if the car is stolen, or damaged while someone is trying to steal it, you won't pay anything at all towards the cost of replacing or repairing it. This cover is only valid if you stick to the terms of the rental agreement.

Third-Party Liability (TPL)

Covers the driver's liability for any injuries and property damage that are included in the policy. It does not cover injuries to the driver or damage to the rental car. This cover is only valid if you stick to the terms of the rental agreement.

Loss or Damage

If the car is stolen, or seriously damaged, or damaged in an incident involving someone else, please contact the rental company and the police immediately. If you can't provide the necessary documents from the police, you'll be liable for the full cost of replacing/repairing the car. If the car gets slightly damaged, and no-one else is involved, please contact the rental company immediately.

The rental company is not liable for the loss of / theft of / damage to any belongings in the car, during or after the rental.

Damage to the car will be charged for by the car hire company after it is dropped off - and will incur a Damage Administration fee on top of the amount deducted from the excess.

Your rental includes unlimited free miles.

Changing the length of your rental can affect how many miles you can drive for free. It can also affect how much you will pay for each additional mile.

Fuel policy

Like for like

When you pick your car up, the fuel tank will be full or partly full. You will leave a deposit to cover the cost of the fuel: the counter staff will block this money on your credit card. Just before you return your car, please replace the fuel you've used.

The fuel tank will be either full or part-full. When you pick the car up, please check how much fuel there is. On return, as long as you've replaced the fuel you've used, you'll pay no fuel fees.

If you return your car with less fuel than it had when you picked it up, the car hire company will keep some or all of your deposit to cover the missing fuel. This will cost you more than you would pay to refill the tank yourself. As well as the cost of the fuel itself, you will pay a non-refundable fuel service charge of US$15.99 including tax.

If there's any fuel missing when you drop your car off, you'll be charged both a refuelling fee and the cost of the missing fuel (at the current market price per litre/gallon).
